All The News That's Fit To Print

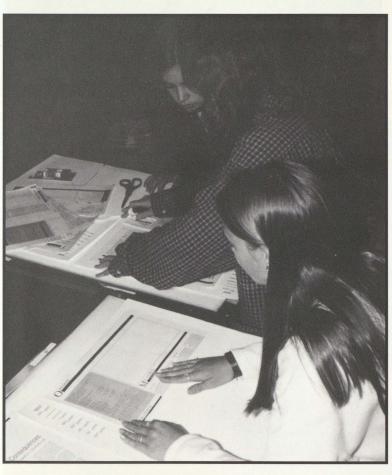

"ThE 1996-1997 VOICE attempted to capture the interests of each student here at Heritage," stated senior staff writer Lynn Makrianis. In partnership with the SAGINAW NEWS, the class produced 10 issues this year, one coming out each month. The paper is produced on computer using Pagemaker, Photoshop, and Word. The VOICE is self-supporting, raising its frunds from advertising sales.

The VOICE serves the Heritage community as a forum for public expressen and welcomes the views of students, staff, and other members of the school community.

Not every article expressed the views of the administration, the student body, or even the entire newspaper staff. Award winning artist /cartoonist Nathan Neal stirred controversy in January with his cartoon depiction of life on the Heritage campus.

Senior editors Jean Rhee and Jennifer Steudle spent hours wrestling with controvesial issues and the proper way to cover them.

Staff reporter, senior Melissa Paterson, summed up the busy year by stating," I think the newspaper class has overcome a lot of difficulties. By the end of the year we came together as a group and produced the best paper we could."

Bahama - Mania

On April 25, members of the Heritage High School Varsity Choir and Mixed Ensemble ventured to the sunny Bahamas to perform in the Festivals at Sea musical competition, on the "Big Red Boat."

Varsity Choir and Mixed Ensembles both received excellent ratings, while the Varsity Choir men received a superior rating. Three members of the Varsity Choir participated in a vocal solo competition. John MacRitchie was awarded third place in the competition, Brandon Wagner received second, and Anne Lauckner received first place.

The trip began at 5:30 AM on Friday when the choirs departed from MBS International Airport.

At 1:00 PM the group boarded the U.S.S. Oceanic and left Port Canaveral, Florida for three funfilled days.

On Saturday, both choirs practiced in the morning upon the rocking U.S.S. Oceanic. After lunch, the choir members went to shore at Nassau, Bahamas and spent the afternoon in the sun. That night, the performances took place in the Hollywood Theater.

After a day of participating in onboat activities in Port Lucaya, the group attended an award ceremony and then headed for the deck for calypso dancing.

After spending a day at Cocoa Beach on Monday, shopping and sight-seeing, the group headed home for Saginaw.

he most exciting experience was just standing on the field in awe, waiting to play our first song," said senior Holly Stella about performing in the Michigan Competing Band Association's State Finals. This year was the first time the Marching Hawks ever qualified for the championships, which were held at the Pontiac Silverdome. They wound up taking 8th place overall in the highest division with a score of 74.2 - the band's all time record. The color guard was ranked 3rd in the state, and percussion, 4th. Junior Matt Vandenburg said, "Inever expected it, but I'm proud of the band."

The long road to state finals started with a week of band camp. Once school started, at least six hours a week were devoted to rehearsals. In September, the 101-member group started going to competitions about every week end. At the Cheasning, Linder and Durand Invitationals, the Hawks took home 3 first place trophies for their division, as well a 11 caption awards, which are trophies for different areas of marching band.

Homecoming week was eve more hectic than usual for the band Since Finals were held on the nigh of the Homecoming dance "Bandcoming" was held on No vember 23rd. Also, TV-5, The Saginaw News, and WIOG 102.5 interrupted practices that week to do features on the band's success

Peer Counseling

After being saddened by the retirement of Jerry Berg, the student body was delighted to hear that Linda McLeod had accepted the strenuous yet exciting position as the new Peer Counseling teacher. The Peer Counseling program has stayed strong throughout the yearsproviding effective services. The Peer III students deal with conflict mediation and personal problem solving of their peers. The Peer III students, as well as the Peer II students provide tutoring in any subject for the students.

Mr. Berg explained one major reason the Peer Counseling program has become so effective is because it gives a chance for kids to talk to other kids who have been trained, and they also have the comfort of knowing that everything is confidential.

Ninety percent of the Peer III counselors end up choosing a profession dealing with communication and the helping of others; such as teaching, psychology, and nursing.

Over twenty students work hard to make this program beneficial to peers. In the words of Angie Tesauro and Kristen Thelen, "We strongly believe that the Peer Counseling program benefits the school as a whole, and we hope it remains steady in the future."

A Fish Tale

"He loves animals so much, he has the fish, the turtle, the rats, the mice, the lizards, and the iguana; I figured that he would love to take some of my fish," said senior Jenny Evans about Biology teacher Mr. Holzhausen.

Evans tropical fish had three sets of babies, resulting in approximately eighty fish. She had already purchased and set up an extra aquarium in her home to keep the fish in. Unfortunately, there wasn't enough room for them and as they grew bigger, she knew she would have to find people to take them.

Mr. Holzhausen let her pick out an aquarium from the greenhouse and set it up. She put twenty-one fish into the tank and, so far, they have all survived.

"I'm really glad that Mr. H. took those fish," Evans said. "I was afraid that I might have to flush some of them. The worst part was trying to figure out how to get a freezer bag full of live fish to school."

Hawks Victorious for First Homecoming Game!

The big night had arrived. It was the Homecoming game. The hearts of hundreds of teenagers pounded like a drum awaiting its solo performance. Heritage players took their positions on the field as if they were a group of soldiers awaiting battle. With eleven seconds left on the clock, Adam Losee ran for his third try into the endzone, winning the first homecoming game in the history of our school. A cheer of thunder sounded from the crowd as soon as the amazing touchdown was completed. The clock stopped with eight seconds still showing. The stands started emptying, while the track was bursting with eager kids. The countdown started---7,6,5,4,3,2... The clock stopped with only one second remaining, showing a score of 15-8. Kids already started running out onto the field when Officer Koski and other administrators directed them back onto the track for the final second of the most memorable game in Heritage's history. The last second quickly vanished and a wild herd of hysterical fans came pouring onto the field like a pack of hungry animals. Tears of joy filled many of the proud players eyes. They gathered into a circle and raised their helmets as a team who had just acheived the biggest goal of their lives. Everyone gathered around the players, cheering when they finally exited the muddy field. The team spent much more time together this year compared to other years. They studied as a whole to keep their grades up for the season. They took their ritual game-day naps after their study session. Lastly they would all go to the fire hall and eat dinner toether. After the bonding dinner at the fire station on Center by White Pine, who could forget the food fights as they went driving down Center road. The food was thrown from car to car. What a sight to see!

Chicken Wings and Root Beer

Winning their 1st title in 4 years wasn't enough for the Heritage guys soccer team. The Hawks were Saginaw Valley Champs, District Champs, Regional Champs and went on to the state semifinals. The team had an overall record of 20 wins and 3 losses. "The whole winning season was the best experience I have ever had," stated senior and captain Mark Rankin. "Chicken wings and root beer" was the rally cry for the team that cheered them on. The team received more support than in previous years. Students Jon Evans and Alyson Garcia organized caravans to several of the away games. "The team would like to send a special thanks to the students, faculty and community for all their support," stated senior Eric Kaltenbach. Many of the teams' players received after seasons honors including coach Jim Stone who was named Valley Coach of the Year. Matt Lautzenhiser received 1st team All State, All Regional and was named Most Valuable Player. Ben Rank received 3rd team All State and 1st team All Regional. Mark Rankin was Top Defensive Player, Honorable Mention All State, 1st team All Regional and 1st team All Conference. Numerous others recieved team awards and honorable mention All Conference Awards.

Girls' Swimming

"Lady Hawks Leave the Competition Dripping"

This year the Heritage girls swimming and diving team domminated the Saginaw Valley League with a 12-0 record. The Hawks started early in the season when they became Tri-Cities champs for the third time in the last four years and won the Flint Southwestern Invitational. The Lady hawks were not satisfied by these accomplishments they also won the Saginaw Valley League title for the fourth consecutive year. The team scored a record breaking 439 points and had 7 first place finishes at the Valley meet. Tamara Carty was the meet's most outstanding swimmer for the second year and Mariann Veisson broke the valley record in the 100 yard breast stroke. The 200 freestyle relay team, which consisted of Laura, Ackerman, Tamara Carty, Kim Smith and Meredith Snook also broke the Saginaw Valley sent a total of 7 swimmers and 1 diver to the State meet at Eastern Michigan.

League record. The Lady Hawks The Lady Hawks success was their season. "Despite all of our winnings, the best part of the team was that we competed as a team," stated Sarah Korf. The swimmers had many team building experiences this season. They had several team dinners and even braided their hair before the Valley meet. "I attribute our successful season to the girls outstanding attitudes," stated coach Bob Oliver, "All of the girls worked hard to make this season an undefeated and SVL championship one. The work ethic and team unity were the main reasons we did so well." The hard work and long hours were well worth it this year. "This is the best best team we have ever had," stated Cissy Burns. "Swimming is more than just a sport--it's life," said Nicole Mousseau.

The Tennis Gals Swing Into Restructuring

Restructuring was the keyword to the girls' varsity tennis team The team had plenty of work ahead of them after the loss of four key players to graduation. The Hawks were determined to give it their all. Their best efforts resulted in eight wins and three losses. Returning seniors were Kara Schulwitz, Erin Kelly, Kelly Szott, and Tara Shockley. The junior class contributed through Amy Gardner, Katie Trogan, Tara Prasad, and Mary Godwin. Jenny Spence and Jamie Millerick represented the sophomores.

"We had two goals for this year. The first was to win the Saginaw Valley League and the second to get to State competition but we didn't make either, stated Katie Trogan. "I think it had a lot to do with the rebuilding we had to do."

Every year has something about it that sticks out in a player's mind. A popular memory among players in 1996 was the bees.

"Bees. That is all I can remember. There were tons of bees," stated Tara Shockley. Whether it be games or practices, the bees showed up with their tennis racquets.

Jennifer Spence, Erin Kelly and Katie Trogan were named to the All- Valley Team, while Kara Schulwitz and Emily Hegler received honorable mentions.

State Champs

Pom Pon Kicks at State

The Heritage Varsity pom pon had a remarkable year; one they will never forget. Their months of practice, starting in June paid off in the end. On March 2, 1997, the pom pon squad won state competition in the class A division at Saginaw Valley State University with a score of 343 out of 360 points. Heritage edged out their rivals and last year's winner Novi High School. "Novi was our biggest competition because they beat us by a half of a point last year. We knew that the routine had to be pretty close to perfect," said junior Abby Reis. Heritage performed third out of the eight squads. When Novi was announced second place, the Heritage girls broke out into smiles.

When Heritage was announced as State Champions, their smiles turned into shrieks as tears started flowing from their eyes. After the win the girls performed an encore performance. Although the Varsity did wonderful, the Junior Varsity at Heritage won state also. This is the first time in history that a Varsity and a Junior Varsity squad from the same school have won in the same year. So Heritage will go down in the history forever. Also over the summer, the squads both brought home Grand Champs trophies from camp. Varsity also came home with a showmanship award and the seniors took first place in the senior kickline competition.

A conference co-championship and six weeks ranked among the state's top ten teams were just two highlights of an exciting spring soccer season. Led by Captains Sara Eddy and Kristy Hopper, the Hawks won 15, tied one, and lost three. Led by senior defender Shea Stelter, the Hawks conerted their conventional defense to a "Brazilian Flat Four", which helped senior goalkeepers Kristen Thomas and Nicole Brasseur rack up ten shutouts. Senior leadership set the tone for the year as was evidenced by the post-season awards. Kristy Hopper was chosen Most Valuable Player, offense; Shea Stelter was Most Valuable Player, defense; Nicole Brasseur received the Spirit award; and Sara Eddy was voted Most Valuable Player. Eddy was named second team All State, and first team All Region. Hopper and Brasseur received All State Honorable Mention, and were named to the regional first team. Junior Natalie Maturen joined the seniors with an All State Honorable Mention and a spot on the All-Regional first team. Three sopohomores received post-season recognition. Allison Neuenschwander was voted Most Improved, while Lauri Vance and Libby Kelly were named to the All Confenence second team. Coach Roland Crane credited the seasons's success to the teamwork and camraderie among the girls and their willingness to try different things. "This was an unselfish, hardworking, coachable group of girls. They shared the ball, they worked hard in practice, and they never questioned changes of formation or lineup. They came to play." Crane also acknowledge that 97 was a praticularly rough year on the field, recalling games in which "Mousseau [Nicole] was trampled, Marr [Andrea] had her nose smashed and left the field gushing blood, Vance tore ligaments, Eddy's leg was fractured..." He added, "High School soccer has become a rough sport. Our girls worked hard this year to keep the sport in and the rough out. I'm proud of them for their sportsmanship."

Senior Lathel Wise was crowned Mr. Heritage on Thursday May 24. Second place was junior Kris Young, and third place was junior Hiram Becker.

The contest started with a swimsuit competition. Senior Adam McCauley wanted to be known for his stubbly armpits and snotty kisses and sophomore Ryan Sanford splashed water on the announcers junior Nicole Mousseau and junior Val Mungia, who then refused to read his talents.

Next was the talent competition. Anderson played the guitar and sang to a Jimmy Buffet song. Lipsinging to "Three Little Pigs" was Barkham. Becker dressed like a girl and arm wrestled with little kids. Buzon danced to "I'm Too Sexy." Ford danced to music while wearing his favorite outfit, spandex. Playing soccer was Griffus. McCauley sang "Lost That Loving Feeling" to his beautiful girlfriend, Barbie. Head banging to Tool was Muslin. Playing the piano Puszykowski. Sanford tried to sing a song when Steve the custodian made his own appearance in the back of the stage. Not knowing what happened Sanford left the stage. Wise did a dance under a black light. Young played the piano and sang.

After intermission the five finalists were announced...Young, Wise, Puszykowski, McCauley, and Becker. They were asked one final question, "If you had a little sister, which Heritage guy would you have her date?" It took only a short time for the judges to decide this year's Mr. Heritage...Lathel Wise.

CONGRATS, TEACHER OF THE YEAR RAN-DADDY COLLIER

Economics teacher Randy Collier was recently chosen as Saginaw Valley League Teacher of the Year.

"It's fantastic and humbling. It really makes me want to get up early the next day and be here and do my job. It's really wonderful to be recognized. Teachers aren't recognized a lot," stated Collier about the honor.

He has been an economics teacher in The Saginaw Township school district for 28 years. He started his schooling at Delta College and received his Bachelors Degree from Western Michigan Üniversity, adding a Master's Degree from Central Michigan University. He has continued his graduate studies at Michigan State University, University of California, San Jose, University of Washington at Seattle, and Saginaw Valley State University.

He believes his greatest accomplishment as a teacher is "when students realize that what I'm trying to teach and that how I teach is important. When I see the light's come on, there's a real sense of accomplishment." He continued, "I want economics to be fun. I want to show the students the tremendous impact economics have on our lives.

"Working with kids" is the best part of his job, according to Collier. He said, "We have some fantastic young men and women here, and they are our future. It's nice working with them."

In a prepared statement, HHS principal Alan Larsen said,

Mr. Collier is considered to be a superior teacher among the students and his colleagues. An advocate of education, he has proven himself to be intelligent, creative, and enthusiastic when it comes to teaching and the development of young minds. Mr. Collier is held in the highest regard by his students and fellow teachers-- but most of all, he has made learning fun.

He added, "I'd just like to say thank you. It makes me feel so good that I'm recognized for what I work so hard to do. It just makes me sad that so many teachers never receive any recognition for all they do and never get the chance to feel the way I do today."

HERITAGE LOSES TWO OF ITS FINEST

MATSON AND BILLITER RETIRE

Harold "Bruce" Billiter will no longer be a part of the Heritage staff. At the end of April, Billiter announced that he would be retiring at the closing of the 96-97 school year after 30 years of working in the education industry.

as a science teacher at the former Chippewa Middle School in 1967. In 1969 he was announced as assistant principal, before he became principal in 1980. Before accepting his assistant principal position at Heritage he worked as a transportation supervisor in 1988-1989.

Billiter plans on moving to a retiremant home with his wife and he would like to do a little fishing, which happens to be his favorite pastime. He would also like to spend some time traveling.

As of June 30, 1997 Mr. Billiter has had a lot of responsibilites here at Heritage, but when he leaves he will miss interacting with all the students here. He believes that all kids have something to say, but there isn't always someone there for the students, and he will miss them the most. Billiter started his career Mr. Billiter is someone that will always be remembered and will surely be missed by students and staff alike. The students and staff of Heritage High School would like to wish Mr. Billiter the best of luck in the future!

"I've always enjoyed hat I'm doing. It's been my ocation and avocation," tated Hugh Matson, who etired this year after forty ears in education, twentyeven of them as an athletic lirector.

In 1957, Matson egan his career in a town ear Kalamazoo where he aught for five years and was he football and track coach. n 1962, he moved to Saginaw to work at Macarthur High School coaching JV football and track. When Macarthur rew too large and had to orm another school, Matson ecame the sole athletic lirector of Eisenhower from 970-1988. When the two chools merged to from Heritage in 1988, Matson became co-athletic director with Ron Stelter.

Matson felt the best part about working here was "feeling that maybe I've influenced some lives to a degree. It's not the wins that make you feel good, it's that if you've helped to make someone a better person.

Matson was excited about retiring but said, "It's going to be a big change in my life. When you get in the habit of doing things for forty years, it's hard to change your life. Ther will definitely be some things I'll miss."

However, Matson stated, "I'll still be a fan of Heritage. I'll probably go to many athletic contests."

On saying goodbye to Heritage, Matson commented, "It's never been a chore to get up and go to school in the morning. I've always enjoyed it. "

Our goal is to help you with yours.

It's a great feeling to finally reach a goal that you've worked hard to achieve. That's why your success is out top priority. At SVSU we can answer questions about how to apply for admission to college, how to receive financial aid, how to prepare for a career that fits your interests, and more. and you can choose from more then 70 areas of study. SVSU is large enough to offer many of the oppurtunities you will find at big universities, but we deliver them in the same caring manner of a small college. So when you're ready to set your goals for college and beyond give us a call. For more information, call |-800-968-9500|.
